

Account executive

📍 London, hybrid, remote

About position

Your responsibilities

- Build and maintain relationships with clients, and execute campaign implementation.
- Develop engaging content across a variety of formats, working closely with team members and third-party vendors.
- Develop content strategies and approaches, liaising and collaborating with clients.

What we want from you

- At least 12 months' marketing or PR experience, ideally writing for B2B technology clients.
- Graduate, with a minimum 2:1 grade, ideally with a degree in journalism or a creative discipline.
- A record of creating impactful content, and the ability to translate difficult briefs into clear copy that meets objectives.
- Time management and verbal communication skills.
- A talent for storytelling, and the ability to explain complex topics in simple terms.
- Confident and eager to learn.

What we can offer you?

Competitive remuneration package.

Friday afternoons off.

The equipment and tech that you need.

Learning and growth opportunities, including weekly training sessions and mentoring schemes.

Part-remote or remote workplace, depending on your preferences and proximity to London.

A vibrant and supportive team, as well as the loveliest clients in the business.
